Resolution No. 1 Confirmation of Minutes

Minutes of the IQAC meeting held on March 12, 2021 sent to members along with the invitation mail were confirmed.

Resolution No. 2

AQAR Report 2019-20 was circulated among members for seeking their inputs and approval. A few suggestions for minor changes were made and the Principal and Coordinator IQAC were authorized to make necessary changes and proceed with the submission.

Handwritten signatures in blue and green ink.

Resolution No. 3

An Amendment to Centre for Academic Excellence Report submitted by Two Member Committee was suggested by Management Representative Dr. P. C. Jain that the minimum number of years of experience required for Ad-hoc faculty to qualify for benefits of international fellowships should be five years and not two years. The amendment was adopted unanimously. The proposed final report with filename "Revised_CAE_New_Version Presented to IQAC on May 20, 2021.pdf", incorporating the suggested amendment was circulated among members along with the invitation mail for this meeting.

Resolution No. 4

It was decided to recommend to the Chairman, Governing Body that the Ad-hoc teachers with less than five years of experience at SRCC, who attended the Conference at South Korea on October 18-19th, 2019, should be reimbursed expenses as per aforementioned report with the filename "Revised_CAE_New Version Presented to IQAC on May 20, 2021.pdf", as a special case. The International Conference was jointly organized by SRCC and Department of International Business & Trade, Kyunghee University, Seoul, South Korea, on the topic Globalization, Trade and Economic Policy: Way Towards Achieving Sustainable Development.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the Chair
