3. About the Foreign Language Cell and Foreign Language courses

The Foreign Language Cell (FLC) of Shri Ram College of Commerce offers part-time courses in foreign languages in collaboration with the Department of Germanic and Romance Studies, University of Delhi, to equip students with valuable linguistic and intercultural skills in an increasingly globalized world. These courses are designed to develop proficiency in reading, writing, listening, and speaking while providing insights into the culture, history, and traditions of the respective language-speaking regions. Mentored by qualified faculty, the courses complement students' academic pursuits and enhance their employability, higher education prospects, and opportunities in international careers.

Offered in the part-time mode, these courses enable students to pursue a foreign language alongside their regular full-time academic programme without disrupting their academic schedule. By acquiring an additional language, students strengthen their communication and cross-cultural competencies, enrich their personality, and build a more competitive resume, thereby improving their career prospects in an increasingly global employment market. The courses are open to students of Shri Ram College of Commerce as well as students from other recognized institutions, subject to the prescribed eligibility criteria and availability of seats.

4. Eligibility Criteria

Candidates who have passed their Senior School Certificate Examination (10+2) from the recognized board or an examination recognized as equivalent with an aggregate of at least 45% marks are eligible to apply. No prior proficiency in French is required.

Registrations are invited from candidates currently enrolled in Shri Ram College of Commerce or other Colleges/Departments/Centre affiliated to any University (Central/State) for any Part-time or Full-time Programme. University of Delhi alumni can also apply for the course those who have completed the degree in last 3 (three) years.
